Flea with his Granny in Australia

To all people old and young, thin and fat, and even ones with pimples on the end of their noses,

I am Flea. I am presently lying in bed naked twiddling my abundant pubic hair and reading Mishima.
Yukio Mishima is the amazingly insightful gay Japanese writer who committed suicide by seppuku in 1970 at the age of 45.

I highly recommend him to all of you.
We, the Red Hot Chili Peppers are here in Hawaii writing music in preparation for a new batch of songs to be available for purchase in plastic containers in a few months.
If we can achieve half of level of artistic excellence that in this here Mishima book then they will be fine songs indeed.

Isn't it funny how such an intangible thing as music, something created by sweat, thought, and spiritual openness, ends up in a little plastic box? I just ~~was~~ woke up from Falling asleep after that last sentence, read what I wrote and realized it would probably bore the shit out of all of you. Oh well.

I'm going to go play bass now and do my damndest to write music that will inspire you to spin wildly on your head, float dreamily through cloudy afternoons, do the Funky Rooster, and have incredible sexual experiences.

Love,
FLEA

It's so beautiful

Hello-

I am currently living on the Big Island of Hawaii- The place where its sunny at 9:00am, cloudy at noon, rainy at 3:00pm, sunny again at 4:30pm, and clear at night- Much like my personality- (Although I'm rarely clear at night)

Yesterday, we all went down to a local reef (Flea, Chad, Anthony + myself) and swam freely among the ocean's fish- Turtles, Bullhead parrotfish, Yellowstripe goatfish, Yellow Tangs, schools of Convict Tangs, to name a few, swam along side us-

And yes, we have seen eels-

We are now in the process of finishing up the writing of a new album- Its very different than anything I've ever done before- (The music that is) But its coming along nicely-

Take care,

Howell

GW: How did you get the gig with the Chili Peppers?

NAVARRO: I've known those guys for years. We've always played on the same circuit. Jane's Addiction and the Red Hot Chili Peppers ended up playing on the same show a lot of times. So we knew each other and had a lot of mutual respect. Then, about a year ago, Flea and I got together and jammed with Henry Rollins and [Jane's Addiction/Porno for Pyros drummer] Steve Perkins, and we both said that we wanted to play together again at some point. A year went by, and about a week after Eric and I decided to make Deconstruction a one-record project, Flea called me up and asked if I wanted to jam again. So I went down to their rehearsal place in the [San Fernando] Valley. Chad Smith, the drummer, was there. We started playing and it felt really good. Then [Chili Peppers vocalist] Anthony Kiedis came down and we just really dug each other. They asked, "How would you feel about playing with the band?" I said, "Sure, I'd love to."

GW: What kind of stuff did you jam on?

NAVARRO: Oh, I don't know. Flea would call out a key and we'd just go. It would be everything from real funky Chili Peppers-type stuff to hard rock to very surreal, spacey music. Whatever would happen. Whatever would flow. We didn't have any preconceived ideas. That's one thing I like about jamming with those guys: There's never any preconceptions.

GW: Which guitarists were important to you during your formative years?

NAVARRO: When I was really young, it was always Jimi Hendrix. And it still is. But in between, I listened to a lot of Eddie Van Halen. Yngwie Malmsteen was real fascinating to me for a brief period. And then Robert Smith from the Cure and Daniel Ash from Love & Rockets and Bauhaus. I loved their simplicity.

GW: People who are into technique often frown on that kind of stuff.

NAVARRO: That flangy chording? I love that. It complements the music so perfectly.

Unnecessary guitar soloing all over the place takes away from the song. When the singer's trying to express sentiment or something deeply valued and there's some guy twiddling away on top of it, it defeats the purpose. So I learned a lot from guys like Daniel Ash and Robert Smith. And I always loved all the different guitarists that have been in Siouxsie and the Banshees. I got into some gloomy death rock for a while. And then I got into only classical music.

But the great innovators, for me, are still Hendrix and Page. I really liked what they did, because their bands weren't just one thing. The Experience and Zeppelin were anything they wanted to be. Now I don't really listen to music, so I couldn't really tell you who I like now. No—wait. I actually think John Frusciante is amazing. I think he's really underrated as a guitar player. I don't know if that's because, as you said, Flea and Anthony have such strong personalities, and they tend to be the focal point of the band, or if it's because people who aren't musicians don't understand what's behind John's playing. But I think that guy's a genius. In a way I'm sorry it didn't work out with him and the Chili Peppers because I would have loved to hear what he was going to do with them next. But I'm happy that I'm playing with them now.

Anthony Kiedis: Lead singer of the Red Hot Chili Peppers.

With all this activity on the Button South stage, the funky foursome known as the Red Hot Chili Peppers will have their work cut out for them this weekend, when they hit town Saturday. The Chili Peppers' 1985 Freaky Styley LP was a critically-acclaimed mix of George Clinton-esque free-form funk and humorous rockers; one tune, Nevermind, contains the lyric: "Never mind the Hall and Oates, Those guys are just a couple of goats." Hear near-hits like Hollywood (Africa) and Catholic School Girls Rule when the Red Hot Chili Peppers attempt to out-red and out-groove Simply Red. Opening act: The Preachers. ## WILL THE RED HOT CHILI PEPPERS BURN NASHVILLE TO THE GROUND?

by Bill Spicer

They are insane you know. And they might very well be dangerous. Perhaps its the danger that makes their live performances flypaper for the curious. After all, they sometimes perform wearing only socks over their genitals. Occasionally they hurl themselves into the audience. Their words can make you grimace and chuckle at the same time. They're the Red Hot Chili Peppers. And they're scheduled to treat Nashville to their ribald power funk on November 29 at Roosters.

The Peppers formed in Hollywood (where else could they have formed?) in 1983, bringing together three noted area musicians and an unknown vocalist in questionable mental health. Michael "Flea" Balzary was the Aboriginal bassist for Fear (Lee Ving's seminal American punk platoon that played John Belushi's personal soundtrack music during his long slow death period) when he hooked up with a former classmate at L.A.'s infamous Fairfax High named Anthony Kiedis. TURN TO FACE THE STRANGE MANGER OF CHANGE. THE LATEST IN A DELERIOUS SERIES OF BRAIN QUAKING REVELATIONS IS THAT WE HAVE ASSIMILATED, THROUGH THE PROCESS OF SHOCKMOSIS, A NEW GUITAR PLAYER BY THE NAME OF DAVE NAVARRO. DAVID HAS THE HEART OF A POET AND THE LUNGS OF AN ASTRONOMER. WE ARE HAPPY THAT HE HAS JOINED OUR MUSICAL WORKS BECAUSE NOW WE DON'T HAVE TO FEEL LIKE JERKS.

WE LEFT LOS ANGELES SOME TIME AGO AND WENT TO A PLACE WHERE THE DAYS MOVE SLOW. SOME PEOPLE SLEEP WITH A PILLOW BETWEEN THEIR KNEES, SOME PEOPLE SPEAK FREELY WITH THE TREES, SOME PEOPLE FLOAT DEEPLY BENEATH THE SEAS OF SOUND AND KEYS. I AM PLEASED TO BE DOING ALL OF THESE WITH EASE IN THE HOT AND HEAVENLY HAWAIIAN BREEZE. GET UP OFF OF THAT THING AND DANCE SO YOU'LL FEEL BETTER.

WE CAME TO THIS ISLAND TO BECOME SOMETHING. A BAND, A FAMILY A TEAM OF DISINFRANCHISED BUTT HAIRS, ANYTHING SO LONG AS IT IS SOMETHING, WE SPEND OUR DAYS WRITING MUSIC, RIDING MOTORCYCLES, JUMPING OFF OF CLIFFS INTO SKY BLUE WATERS AND SACRIFICING IMAGINARY VIRGINS TO ANCIENT HAWAIIAN GODS AND GODDESSES. SOMETIMES I GO OFF TO THE ALOHA LIFE HOPING TO IMPREGNATE WORDS WITH NOTES, AND NOTES WITH GUTS AND PAIN WITH PLEASURE. ONE DAY SOON WE WILL BE IMPREGNATING YOU.

Sun, surf, sand, ocean, riding our bikes everywhere, volcanos. ya know the usual. sounds like shit right? well, okay well suffer if we have to. any how, it's been a long time since we've talked. there may be some new friends aboard the Chili train. welcome. lot's of changes since our last pow wow. mainly Guitarists. Dave is you know, rocks like the freak that he is. I'm sure all is going to enjoy our new shit. Well keep ya posted.

CALLING ALL WORKING DRUMMERS. Get ready for the freshest video from Chad Smith, chief pace maker for the RED HOT CHILI PEPPERS. Referring to his many years of studio recording and performing at hundreds of sold-out shows, Chad has created the infectious beats that slinked this club band to the top. Fortunately his speech patterns aren't as twisted as the band's sense of humor, and he provides a well organized and entertaining instructional video designed to take you to a new level of playing.

NO BORING BACKING TRACKS. CHAD plays along with the actual masters from the multi-platinum recording BLOOD, SUGAR, SEX, MAGIK. You'll see Chad dissect his most potent beats including the Grammy winner Give It Away, as well as Higher Ground, Breaking the Girl and Suck My Kiss, all the while spotlighting his powerful kick-drum, syncopated snare work and tasty cymbal work. It's a master class in holding down the solid groove.

THEN FLEA ARRIVES. The bass guru and other half of the Pepper's rhythm section talks with Chad about conceptualizing feels and working out grooves. They play many songs, including Naked In The Rain, Nobody Weird Like Me and If You Have To Ask as well as some totally impromptu jams that show this dynamic duo's commitment to listening, locking-in and having fun.

This video breaks down the ingredients to one of rock's hottest rhythm sections. This is the real stuff, no fluff, from the drum master of psychedelic, sex funk.

Dear Red Hot Chili Peppers,

In this country there is no respect for human life. The statistics of violence are just overwhelming. Afternoon I was listening to your tape Blood Sugar Sex Magik. And then it hit me. Now I know what I can do to stop the violence. At first I thought it would be more appropriate to write to a politician, but politicians don't care about teenagers we're not old enough to vote so ~~what~~ we don't have a voice in politics. But then I ~~so~~ thought about writing to you guys. A lot of your fans are teenagers, we love your music, and we listen to your lyrics. So you have the power to help stop the violence. You can write a song about stopping the violence, and make troubled kids realize what they're doing. I've already done my part, I've written this letter and asked your group to help our generation. I have complete faith that you will not let us down.

Oh and by the way my name is Janie I am a thirteen year old, young female woman. I'm a big fan of your music and your videos are cool, too. When I grow up I want to be a musician, because kids don't listen to politicians or their parents that much. But us musicians and singers <sup>we</sup> can deliver powerful messages.

WOODSTOCK '99

In 1969, at a pastoral farm near upstate Woodstock NY, an unprecedented event and the greatest rock concert in history overwhelmed the small rural community and shocked the entire world. So many people showed up that promoters didn't even attempt to collect tickets. The NY Thruway was closed down, and helicopters had to shuttle performers to the stage. What followed was a weekend of unbridled flower power at the zenith of the Aquarian Age. A Hippy City. Ad hoc politics. Babies were born and people died. An estimated half a million fans grooved on a lineup unmatched in the annals of music: Jimi Hendrix; The Who; Jefferson Airplane; The Grateful Dead; Janis Joplin; The Band; Crosby, Stills, Nash & Young; Joan Baez; Sly & the Family Stone; Joe Cocker; Santana; Creedence Clearwater Revival; Ten Years After; Richie Havens; Melanie; Arlo Guthrie; Ravi Shankar; Blood, Sweat & Tears; Tim Hardin; Johnny Winter; Canned Heat; Sha Na Na; Country Joe & the Fish; Paul Butterfield Blues Band; John Sebastian; Mountain; and The Incredible String Band.

1994. The 25th anniversary. On the identical weekend of August 13 they're going to do it again. Your Red Hot Chili Peppers will be there. Also on tap (or at least negotiating): Metallica, Guns N' Roses, Aerosmith, Pearl Jam, Eric Clapton, The Dead, Van Halen, Peter Gabriel, Alice in Chains, Stone Temple Pilots, Soundgarden, Henry Rollins, Cypress Hill, Spin Doctors, REM, Nine Inch Nails, and many many more.

Lots of fans (including Hannah Nolte, St. Louis, MO and Pamela Anderson, Bloomington, MN) have requested the lyrics to:

SOUL TO SQUEEZE

I'VE GOT A BAD DISEASE
FROM MY BRAIN IS WHERE I BLEED
INSANITY IT SEEMS HAS GOT ME BY MY SOUL TO SQUEEZE
ALL THE LOVE FROM ME
WITH ALL THE DYING TREES I SCREAM
THE ANGELS IN MY DREAMS HAD TURNED TO DEMONS OF GREED THAT'S MEAN

WHERE I GO I JUST DON'T KNOW
I'VE GOT TO GOT TO GOT TO TAKE IT SLOW
WHEN I FIND MY PEACE OF MIND
I'M GONNA GIVE YOU SOME OF
MY GOOD TIME

TODAY LOVE SMILED ON ME
TOOK AWAY MY PAIN SAID
PLEASE
LET YOUR RIDE BE FREE
YOU'VE GOT TO LET IT BE

WHERE I GO I JUST DON'T KNOW
I'VE GOT TO GOT TO GOT TO TAKE IT SLOW
WHEN I FIND MY PEASE OF MIND
I'M GONNA GIVE YOU SOME OF
MY GOOD TIME

SO POLITE INDEED
I'VE GOT EVERYTHING I NEED
MAKE MY DAYS A BREEZE
TAKE AWAY MY SELF DESTRUC-TION

IT'S BITTER BABY AND IT'S VERY SWEET
A HOLY ROLLER COASTER
BUT I'M ON MY FEET
TAKE ME TO THE RIVER LAY ME
ON YOUR SHORE
I'LL BE COMIN' BACK BABY'LL BE COMIN' BACK FOR MORE
I CAN NOT FORGET BUT I WILL NOT ENDEAVOR
SIMPLE PLEASURES ARE MUCH BETTER
BUT I WON'T REGRET IT NEVER

WHERE I GO I JUST DON'T KNOW
I'VE GOT TO GOT TO GOT TO TAKE IT SLOW
WHEN I FIND MY PEACE OF MIND
I'M GONNA GIVE YOU SOME OF
MY GOOD TIME

WHERE I GO I JUST DON'T KNOW
I MIGHT END UP SOMEWHERE IN MEXICO

WHEN I FIND MY PEACE OF MIND
I'M GONNA KEEP IT FOR THE END

And there will be a video of the making of the new (as yet untitled) CD.

Where's Chad??

That was the question as the production company prepared for the Chad Smith Red Hot Rhythm Method shoot. Then we heard the roar of his vintage Mustang racing around the corner. The camera crew just made it outside in time to catch Chad as he pulled up to the studio. Within minutes he was running down the hallway; he grabbed some fruit, changed his shirt, sat down and began to jam: "Give it Away", "Suck My Kiss", "Higher Ground" and "Breaking the Girl". He spent the rest of the afternoon and evening playing, jamming, talking about drumming, playing with Flea, explaining the parts of their songs, and just having a good time. Chad covers it all. He creates drum parts, the importance of playing simple and solid beats, warming up and much more.

Of significance is the rare video appearance of Flea, who stopped by to jam with Chad and demonstrate some of the band's great bass and drum grooves. Together that play "Naked in the Rain", "Nobody Weird Like Me" and "If You Have to Ask". For anyone who has ever wanted to see Chad up close—this is the video for you. And that's not all. Also available is a music book to go along with the video that comes with a cassette or CD that has all the music from the video mixed without drums so all of you drummers can play along—that's right—play along with the Chili Peppers!! If you can read drum music, there are all of Chad's parts written out, if not there is a simple "road map" chart, or you can just put on the headphones and crank it up. Keep an eye out for Chad at your local music or drum shop. He's been out doing drum clinics and just having fun promoting his new video and book. He's also been
