MT. FUJI & ASIAN TOUR INFO

Anthony on Sunset Boulevard

Fanophiles: Recently the Head Honcho and James spent a terrific week in Los Angeles with Anthony at his home in the Hollywood Hills. Louis, Sherri and Cash were still there, too, having been house sitting the place for Anthony while he was in India. We also visited Dave and Monet's home and met with Chad, Maria and Manon. Flea was still in Australia. Among the highlights of the trip: a great dining experience at trendy restaurant Indochine with Anthony and RHCP rat packers Steve Jones (Sex Pistols), Maverick Record's Guy Oseary, actors Stephen Dorff and Ben Stiller, BSSM & OHM producer Rick Rubin, and Black Crowes producer George Drakoulis; Stephen Dorff's "Welcome home Anthony from India" party with the rat pack and others including Adam Sandler, Tracii Lords, David Arquette, Zoe Cassavettes and Lukas Haas; visits to the sets of Wesley Snipes' new movie "Blade", "Dr. Quinn, Medicine Woman", and "The Tonight Show"; and a nice meeting with new RHCP booking agents Don Muller and Marc Geiger who kindly supplied the tour info. Head Honcho

READ THIS IMPORTANT INFORMATION

Please, please, please use your membership number when you correspond with the fan club. Put it on your letters, photos, envelopes, everything. There are millions of scraps of paper floating around here.

If you want us to answer a personal question:

(1) use your membership number 1848

(2) include a self addressed stamped envelope.
If you do not live in the USA include an International Postal Coupon.

Due to escalating costs in the production, printing and postage of the fan club magazine — as well as the erratic and capricious nature of rock 'n roll bands in general and ours in particular — this will be the last of the "quarterly" issues. From now on they'll be published semi-annually or when ever there is appropriate info (like tours) or especially good news to disseminate. We will begin emphasizing our highly acclaimed web page (<http://www.coast.net/~rhcpfans>) as well as our email (rhcpfans@coast.net) for current updated info and photos and encourage all of you to make this transition. For those who want to stick with us and help support the band and the fan club it's renewal time for members:

495 thru 566. Also 1170 thru 1563.

HELLO PEPPERS.

IT'S BEEN A LONG TIME. AS YOU PROBABLY KNOW, ANTHONY HAS BEEN TRAVELING AROUND THE GLOBE AND FLEA HAS BEEN IN AUSTRALIA. SO, WHILE THOSE GUYS WERE OFF CREATING NEW LIFE EXPERIENCES, CHAD AND I BEGAN WORK ON A RECORD OF OUR OWN. WE AREN'T SURE AS TO WHAT WE PLAN TO DO WITH IT, BUT WE JUST WANTED TO MAKE USE OF THE TIME OFF AND KEEP CREATING. I GUESS I KIND OF THOUGHT THAT IF WE KEPT BUSY, WE WOULDN'T GO CRAZY SITTING HERE IN L.A. NOTHING COULD BE FURTHER FROM THE TRUTH. SOMETIMES, I THINK THAT I'M JUST THE KIND OF GUY WHO GOES A LITTLE BIT CRAZY NO MATTER WHAT I AM DOING OR WHERE I AM. FORTUNATELY FOR ME, IT ALWAYS PASSES AND I 'RE-COUP' MY SANITY. MONET WAS IN N.Y. DOING THE FASHION SHOWS WHILE CHAD AND I FINISHED UP. NOW, SHE'S HOME, AND SO ARE ANTHONY AND FLEA. IT'S LIKE A FAMILY RE-UNION. I'M VERY HAPPY TO HAVE EVERYBODY BACK IN THE SAME PLACE. WE (THE PEPPERS) PLAN TO START WRITING A NEW RECORD THIS MONTH (APRIL). WE ARE ALL VERY EXCITED ABOUT IT. I THINK IT WILL PROVE TO BE A VERY DIFFERENT AND NEW SOUNDING RECORD. "ONE HOT MINUTE", TO ME, IS A GOOD RECORD, BUT IT ALMOST SEEMS LIKE A RECORDING OF THREE MUSICIANS FINDING THEIR 'NICHE' WITH A NEW FOURTH. IN FACT, THAT'S PRETTY MUCH WHAT IT IS. THE NEW RECORD IS VERY EXCITING TO ME, BECAUSE WE ARE NOW FULLY INTEGRATED AS MUSICIANS. I HOPE WE CAN BRING IT TO YOU SOON. I KNOW WE'LL TRY. I HOPE THIS ISSUE FINDS YOU ALL WELL AND SAFE, AND THANK YOU ALL FOR THE LETTERS AND CHRISTMAS GIFTS. MONET AND I APPRECIATE IT VERY MUCH TO BE IN YOUR THOUGHTS.

LOVE TO ALL

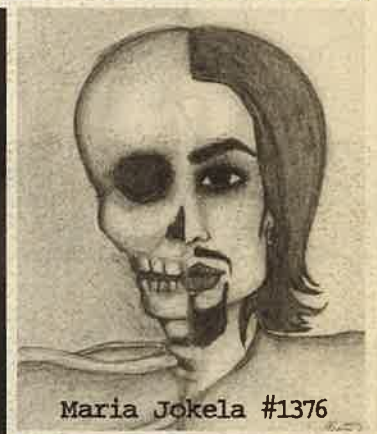

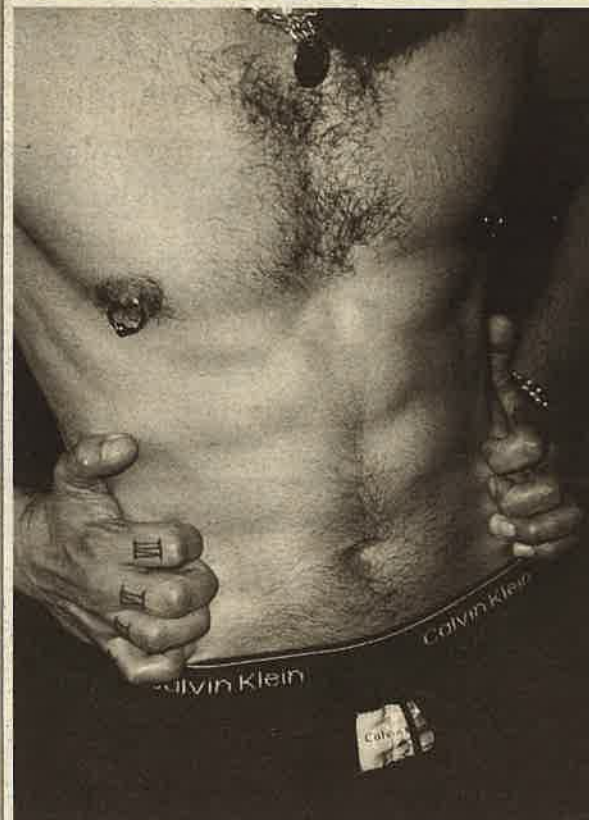

DAVE

Stepping into the darkness away from the light.
I see your eyes through the smokey gloom.
That gently lures me into my doom.
I hear your voice inside the wind.
I feel your soul stepping in.
I try to run but I can't see.
The blackness in this room is blinding me.
Looking around it all looks the same.
For darkness has no shape as well as no frame.
My mind with disbelief, let me go wants to say.
My eyes in August know that darkness is their play.
Let me feel your sane, as my soul you drain.
For I am impartial to your darken pain.
Sit down you say, although bewildered but safe.
For darkness is your friend and pain is your gate.

S >> SILVERCHAIR singer DANIEL JOHNS, 17, was hauled off to the Santa Monica, Calif., police station by cop No. 57 when he was caught driving on the beach sans license. (The band was test driving a Montero Sport for a piece in Bikini magazine to be written by Chili Pepper DAVE NAVARRO.) "In the [police] car I kept saying, 'We're in a band; we're from Australia,'" says Johns. "But he was like, 'I don't care.'" Charges were promptly dropped when the band's publicist arrived with his license; Johns spent the afternoon signing autographs for the officers.

During February and March of 1997 Anthony traveled across the ancient and eclectic country of India, mingling with its one billion people and their countless languages, religions and philosophies. Arriving first at the international airport in Bombay on the western coast of the subcontinent, he connected with a smaller plane and proceeded down to Thuruvananthaparam (Trivandrum) on the southwest tip of the country where he met up with two British girls, Nadia from Hong Kong and Pip from London. Together, starting at the Arabian Sea, they boated through the back water of Cochi to a wild life preserve and tiger sanctuary in the mountains. After an extended educational bout with the animals and enchanted evenings spent sleeping on a house boat, they returned to Thuruvananthaparam and flew inland to Bangalore. From there they traveled by car to Puttaparthi, the home of Sai Baba, a renowned "avatar" (one sent by God to help a troubled world). Joining his many followers they stayed for a few days at his "ashram" (a spiritual retreat) and attended the twice daily "darshans" (audiences with a deity or saint) where they basked in Sai Baba's spiritual light and received his religious teachings.

Eventually, Anthony left his English pals and flew to Madras on the east coast. From there he caught a 26 hour train ride along the Bay of Bengal up to Bhubaneswar, where he spent two days in a very poor tribal area checking in with the local people and visiting the area's temples.

Next he flew to his base in northern India, the home of sisters Shanti and Divia in the capital city of New Delhi. From there it was another four hour train ride and a rugged journey by Jeep into the mountains above Rishikesh, where he spent the next five days in the small village of Shivpuri on the shore of the Ganges River where the clear glacier fed head waters flow out of the Himalaya Mountains. By day he white water rafted the mighty Ganges; at night he slept on the white sandy beaches of this the holiest river in the world.

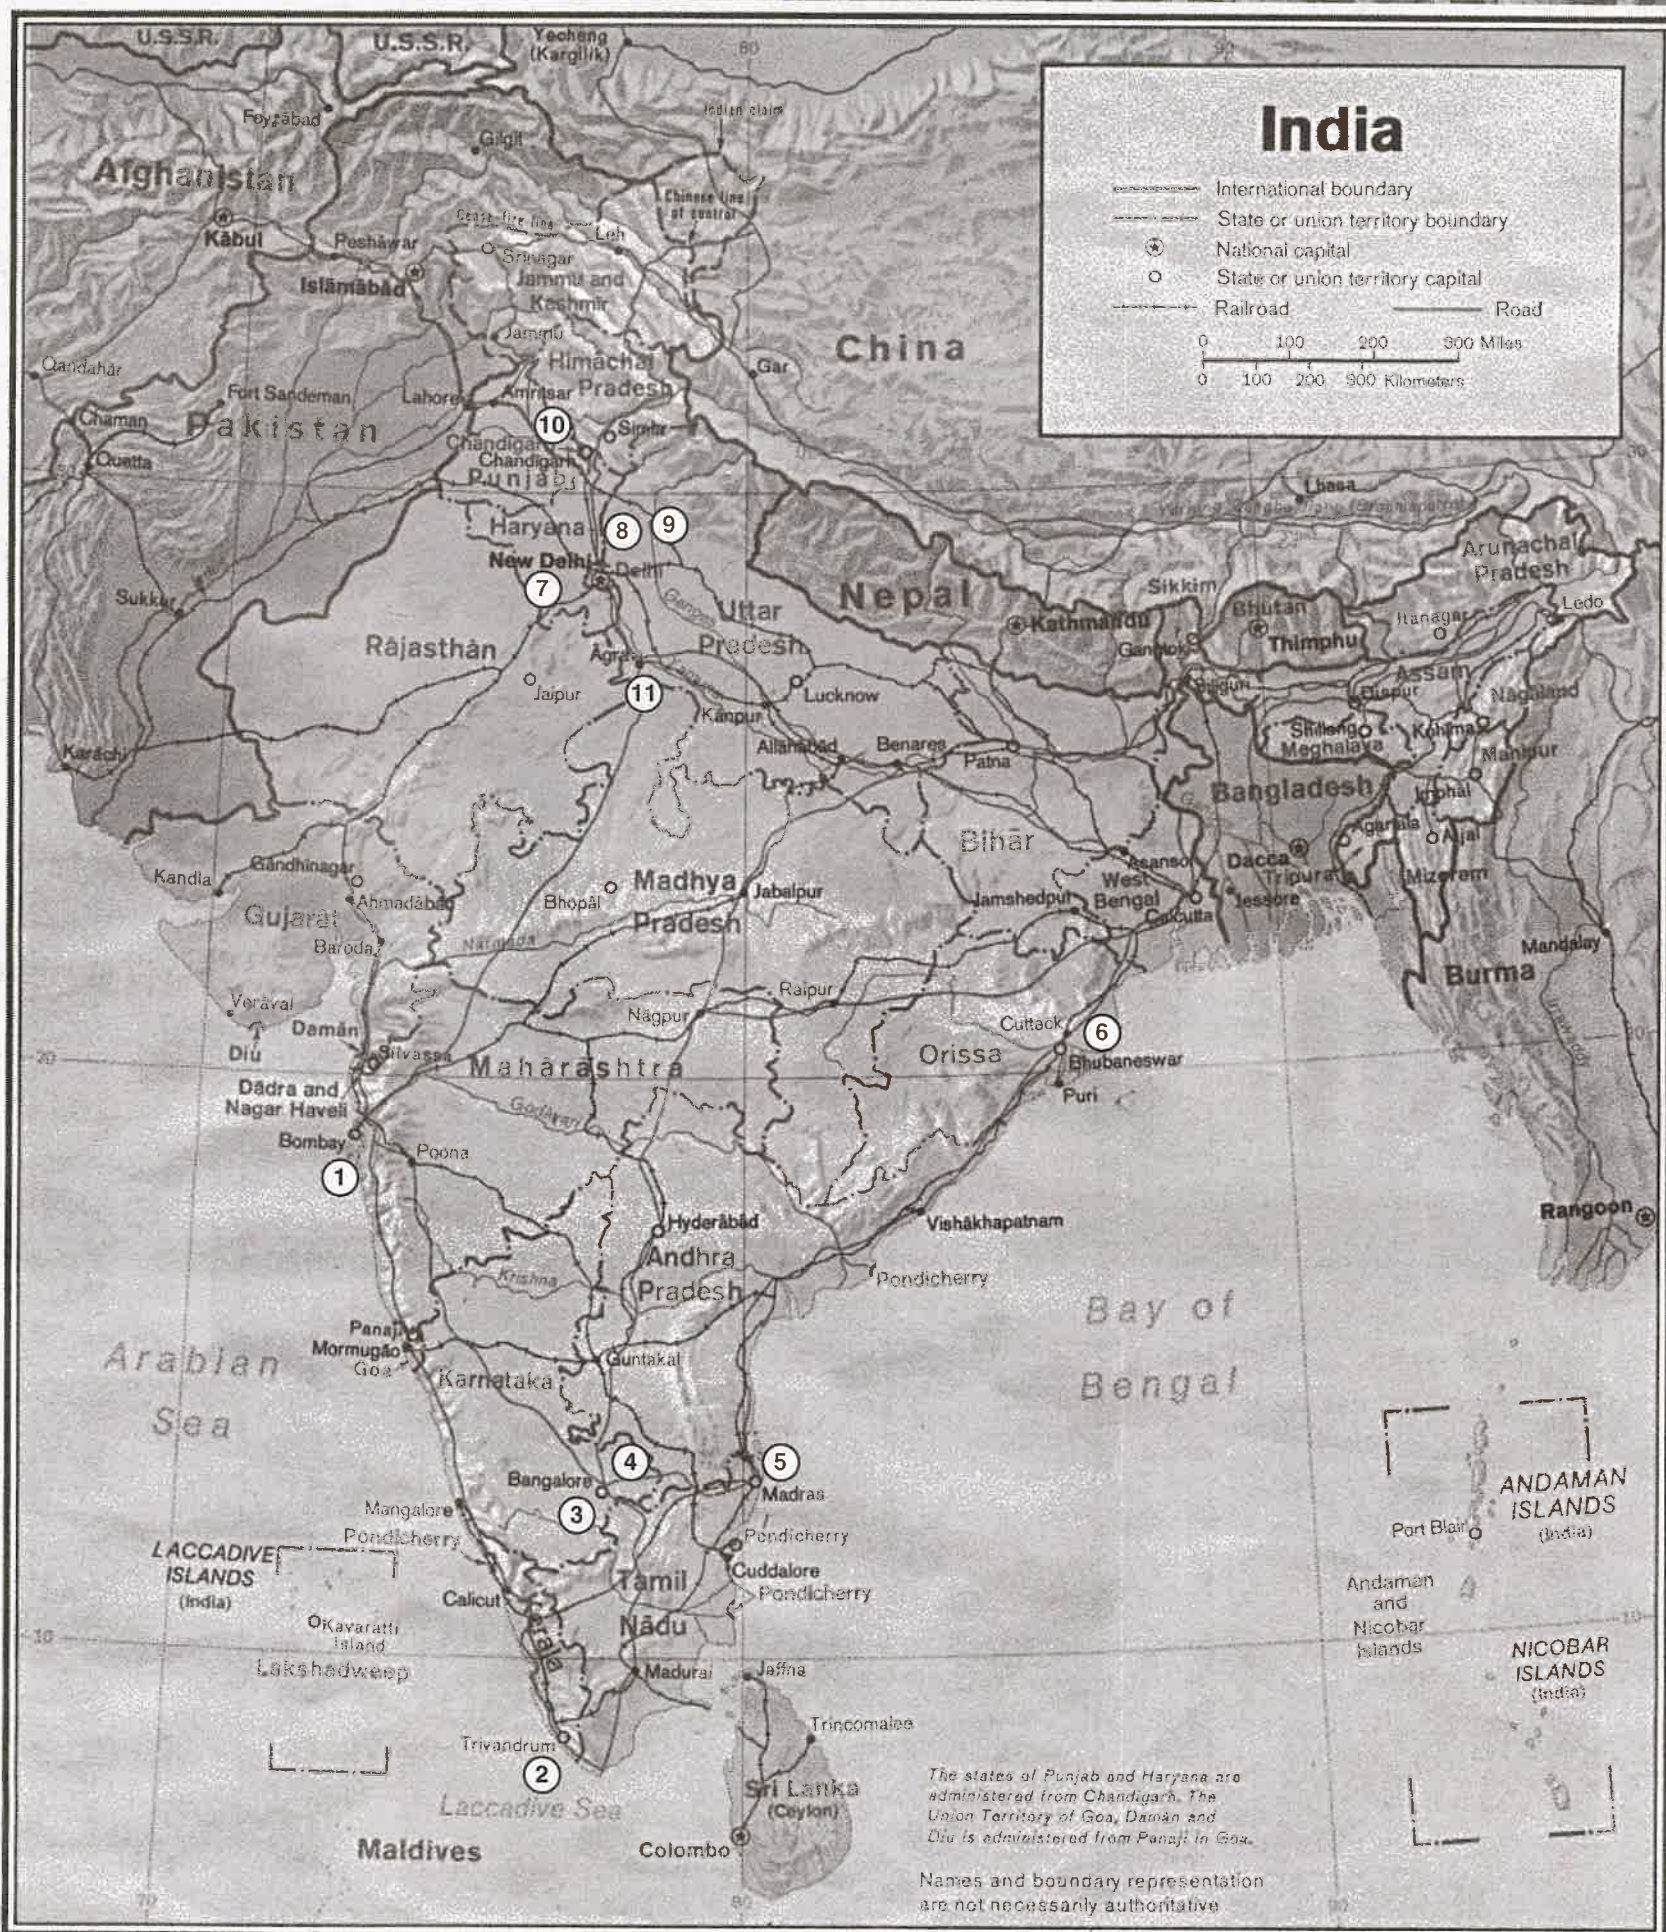

After a return to base, it was time for his sojourn by train and car into the mountains northwest of Delhi to Dharmshala—the Tibetan refugee city and home of the Dalai Lama, the spiritual leader of Tibet. When China invaded Tibet in 1959, India allowed the Dalai Lama to set up a refugee city in the mountains where 20,000 of Tibet's four million people now live. Anthony had the phenomenal good fortune to have an audience with the Dalai Lama which left him brimming with joy and tears of elation. He strongly encourages everyone who reads this to get involved with the liberation of Tibet from China.

Anthony spent time teaching English to some of the Buddhist refugees, who he described as laughing, happy, and non-judgmental people who eschew hate and revenge despite the ordeals they've suffered. The standard sentence for demonstrating against China's occupation of their homeland is three years imprisonment, beating and torture. After their release from jail they must then cross the Himalayas on foot to reach Dharamshala, a journey that can take weeks, and many of them are sick and elderly. "Step up to the plate for Tibet", says Anthony, "and the daunting task of getting China out of Tibet."

After five days in Dharamshala Anthony returned to Delhi to leave for Australia but couldn't get a flight, so with time to kill he traveled to Agra where he hooked up with an "old school" guide who took him to both the Taj Mahal and the abandoned city of Fatehpur-Sikri. Finally, it was back to Shanti and Divia's in Delhi, and then his flight out of India and back to Flea's home in Australia for some fun in the sun, swimming, surfing and a memorable side trip to the great city of Sydney.

Anthony's final words: "Free Tibet!"

CHILI PEPPERS: LIGHTS, CAMERA, ACHTUNG!

Flea goes German for major movie

● RED HOT CHILI PEPPERS bassist Flea is taking advantage of the band's current break in activity by appearing in a hot new movie.

The wacky four-stringer has been snapped up to appear in 'The Big Lebowski', the latest film from the Coen brothers - the celebrated oddball duo responsible for such movies as 'Fargo', 'Barton Fink' and 'Raising Arizona'. Amazingly, this will be Flea's 17th film, following parts in such movies as 'Back To The Future II', 'Tapeheads', 'My Own Private Idaho' and 'Suburbia'.

Flea's latest role is described as that of a German nihilist, and he appears alongside top actors John Goodman, Jeff Bridges and 'Reservoir Dogs' star Steve Buscemi. The movie has just gone into production in Los Angeles.

Whilst Flea pursues his acting career, fellow Chili Peppers Dave Navarro (guitar) and Chad Smith (drums) have been writing material for a possible side project, although the duo are keeping their plans under wraps.

There's no official news yet on when, or indeed whether, the Chili Peppers will start work on a new studio album.

FLEA: most red-blooded men would rather snog Alicia Silverstone, but each to their own...

John Frusciante is out on the "Trulio Disgracias Tour" with members of Fishbone, Thelonus Monster, Keith Morris Band and others.

See our web page for tour info.
